

Lung Function Improves With Chiropractic Care

Changes in Pulmonary Function Associated with Upper Cervical Specific Chiropractic Care

Patients in the study experienced "significant positive changes" in breathing capacity and lung function after receiving chiropractic care for the correction of upper cervical vertebral subluxation. *

Robert Kessinger, D.C.

* Journal of Vertebral Subluxation
Research 1996; 1(3):43.

Image credit: Mike Baird
bairdphotos.com

